Tony Miner, Headmaster

As a graduate of Purdue University I completed a degree in Communications, Public Relations. This career path has taken me into ministry for 14 years and then to King's where I have enjoyed working with families. As Principal of The King's Academy I am dedicated to helping students become grounded in Biblical truth – in academics and the arts, and in their personal character and spiritual growth.

E. Davis, Office Manager

I have been at King's for 18 years. I now enjoy seeing my grandchildren each day as they attend TKA.

E. & Q. Ballinger, School Events Coordinator, Development Director

A. Binkerd, Bookkeeping

Working as a tax advisor I joined TKA's office team. The atmosphere and people are great. I'm excited that my book, Violent Love, has been published by Tate Publishing.

M. Lynn, A.A., Receptionist

I love being part of school where my daughter attends. King's family atmosphere fosters values that we have at home.

A. Moore, School Nurse

B. Renbarger, School Choice Representative

K. Wormgoor, Website Manager

Sports and Support Staff

A. Allen, Children's Chef

S. Briones, A. Allen, Housekeeping

J. Elliot, Athletic Director

J. Knoderer, Housekeeping and Maintenance Coordinator

I like the family atmosphere at King's. When I'm not trouble-shooting computer problems at school, I enjoy crocheting, going on walks and one day hope to sky dive.

J. Clifford, B.A. Elementary Education

Kindergarten

I knew at a young age God wanted me to work with kids. King's sincerely cares about the individual student and encourages students to live a life of serving others and being a blessing.

K. Brown, B.S. Elem. Ed.

1st Grade

I love working with kids and seeing them discover new things, and I love partnering with the families not only to educate but be a part of bringing up boys and girls who love Jesus.

K. Wormgoor, B.S. Life Science Ed.
Elementary Art

Wondering why I am teaching Art with a Science degree? After completing a double art major in high school, I entered college and began my study in Art Education and Marketing. I gravitated to Life Science and creating and teaching have remained an intricate part of my adult life. I love when a student discovers their God-given creativity.

Spanish

I began teaching 27 years ago after learning Spanish on the mission field. I love that I can teach something I enjoy, especially at King's where I can incorporate Bible verses, praise songs and prayers in our Spanish classes. Not many people know that I am an identical twin - I promise it will be me who shows up for class 😊
